Eighteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time,
Year C

Luke 12:13-21

Family life helps us learn about the values of solidarity and the common good. As a family, we strive to respect the rights of each family member and make decisions that promote the common good of the family. Talk about what it would be like if the family ordered a pizza and then divided it unevenly, with some members getting as many pieces as they wanted while others got only a half slice. Talk about how you work to make sure that everyone in the family has his or her fair share.

READ TOGETHER

Luke 12:13-21 .

TALK TOGETHER

Talk about how your family is also a member of the human family, called to share the goods of creation fairly and justly. Explain that in this Sunday's Gospel, Jesus challenges us to remember that the goods of the world are intended to be shared by all. Talk about the parable of the rich fool and ask family members to describe what they think he did wrong. Emphasize that although the man in the story doesn't seem bad, Jesus points out that this man's flaw was that he was thinking only about himself and his own comfort and security. Emphasize that when we fail to think about the needs of others, we call that a sin of omission. Remind your children that each time we go to Mass, we ask forgiveness for what we have done and for what we have failed to do. We call this prayer the Confiteor.

Pray together.

End this time together by praying the Confiteor ("I confess to almighty God...").

Decimoctavo Domingo en el Tiempo Ordinario
Año C

Lucas 12:13-21

La vida familiar nos ayuda a conocer los valores de la solidaridad y el bien común. Como familia, nos esforzamos por respetar los derechos de cada miembro de la familia y tomar decisiones que promuevan el bien común de la familia. Hable acerca de cómo sería si la familia ordenara una pizza y luego la dividiera de manera desigual, con algunos miembros obteniendo tantos pedazos como quisieran mientras que otros solo obtuvieran la mitad de la rebanada. Hable sobre cómo usted trabaja para asegurarse de que todos en la familia tengan su parte justa.

LEER JUNTOS

Lucas 12:13-21.

HABLE JUNTOS

Hable acerca de cómo su familia es también un miembro de la familia humana, llamada a compartir los bienes de la creación de manera justa. Explique que en el Evangelio de este domingo, Jesús nos desafía a recordar que los bienes del mundo están destinados a ser compartidos por todos. Hable sobre la parábola del rico necio y pida a los miembros de la familia que describan lo que creen que hizo mal. Haga hincapié en que, aunque el hombre de la historia no parece malo, Jesús señala que el defecto de este hombre era que solo pensaba en sí mismo y en su propia comodidad y seguridad. Enfaticé que cuando fallamos en pensar en las necesidades de los demás, lo llamamos pecado de omisión. Recuérdales a tus hijos que cada vez que vamos a Misa, pedimos perdón por lo que hemos hecho y por lo que hemos dejado de hacer. Llamamos a esta oración el Confiteor.

Oren juntos

Termine este tiempo juntos rezando el Confiteor ("Me confieso ante Dios todopoderoso...").

"Take care to guard against all greed, for though one may be rich, one's life does not consist of possessions." Luke 12:15

"Estén atentos y cuidense de toda forma de avaricia; porque aun cuando alguien tenga abundancia, su vida no consiste en tener bienes" Lucas 12:15

The Gospel message is contrary to modern culture that continually tries to convince us that our joy comes from the material things we possess. That the more we acquire, the happier we will be. Jesus shows us that our true joy comes from our "invisible" gifts like love, mercy and forgiveness. True joy comes from "emptying" ourselves, giving of ourselves rather than always taking. We are called not to hoard but to share. True joy comes from living a grateful and generous lifestyle; become more "God-centered" and less "self-centered."

El mensaje del Evangelio es contrario a la cultura moderna que continuamente trata de convencernos de que nuestra alegría viene de los bienes materiales que poseemos. Que mientras más cosas adquirimos, más felices seremos. Jesús nos muestra que nuestra verdadera alegría viene de nuestros dones "invisibles" como el amor, la misericordia y el perdón. La verdadera alegría viene de "vaciarlos" nosotros mismos, dando de nosotros en lugar de tomar. No somos llamados a atesorar sino a compartir. La verdadera alegría viene de tener un estilo de vida agradecido y generoso; de transformarnos para estar más "centrados en Dios" y ser menos "egocéntricos".
