Twenty Fifth Sunday in Ordinary Time, Year A
Matthew 20:1-16

The workers in this parable sound very much like squabbling children, comparing what they have each been given and making complaints to the parent. Among children there is a tendency to equate love with gifts and material things. This tendency can devolve into a spirit of entitlement, which runs counter to the spirit of gratitude. Any effort we make to overcome this tendency, to keep love from being entwined with gifts and possessions, will enable our children to accept completely the love that God gives freely and generously.

TALK TOGETHER

Observe together any tendency within your family to make comparisons. Are children sometimes heard saying that another child received a greater portion of a favorite food at dinner or dessert? Does one person complain that a parent spends more time with one child over another? Ask if such comparisons are helpful. Discuss together why such comparisons are made. Consider these questions: Why do the workers grumble? Is the landowner's assessment accurate? Unfortunately, we are sometimes like these workers when we make the comparisons we discussed earlier.

READ TOGETHER

Read together today's Gospel, Matthew 20:1-16.

PRAY TOGETHER

Conclude in prayer together remembering that love cannot and ought not to be measured. Sit quietly together acknowledging God's great love for each person as individuals and for your family. Pray together today's psalm, Psalm 145, or the Lord's Prayer.

Pastor's Family Corner

Vigésimo Quinto Domingo en el Tiempo Ordinario, Año A Mateo 20:1-16

Los trabajadores de esta parábola suenan muy parecidos a niños que se pelean, comparando lo que cada uno ha recibido y presentando quejas a sus padres. Entre los niños existe una tendencia a equiparar el amor con los regalos y las cosas materiales. Esta tendencia puede derivar en un espíritu de privilegio, que va en contra del espíritu de gratitud. Cualquier esfuerzo que hagamos para superar esta tendencia, para evitar que el amor se entrelace con dones y posesiones, permitirá a nuestros hijos aceptar plenamente el amor que Dios les da libre y generosamente.

HABLEN JUNTOS

Observen juntos cualquier tendencia dentro de su familia a hacer comparaciones. ¿A veces se escucha a los niños decir que otro niño recibió una porción mayor de su comida favorita en la cena o el postre? ¿Alguna persona se queja de que un padre pasa más tiempo con un niño que con otro? Pregunte si tales comparaciones son útiles. Discutan juntos por qué se hacen tales comparaciones. Considere estas preguntas: ¿Por qué se quejan los trabajadores? ¿Es precisa la evaluación del propietario del terreno? Desafortunadamente, a veces somos como estos trabajadores cuando hacemos las comparaciones que comentamos anteriormente.

LEER JUNTOS

Lean juntos el Evangelio de hoy, Mateo 20:1-16.

OREN JUNTOS

Concluyamos juntos en oración recordando que el amor no puede ni debe medirse. Siéntense juntos en silencio reconociendo el gran amor de Dios por cada persona como individuo y por su familia. Oren juntos el salmo de hoy, el Salmo 144, o el Padrenuestro.

"Thus, the last will be first, and the first will be last." - Matthew 20:16

You've heard the saying "it's not where you start, but how you finish." This certainly applies to this Bible passage. We have a responsibility not only for our own lives, but for the lives of others as well. We are called to generously share our gifts with others, not hoard them for our own use. Our sincere gratitude and cheerful generosity will help us live "God-centered" lives and not "self-centered" lives.

"Entonces, los últimos serán los primeros, y los primeros serán los últimos." - Mateo 20:16

Seguramente ha escuchado el dicho "no se trata de dónde empiezas, sino de cómo terminas". Esto ciertamente se aplica a este pasaje de la Biblia. No solo somos responsables de nuestras vidas, sino también de las vidas de otras personas. Somos llamados a compartir nuestros dones con generosidad, no a acumularlos para nuestro propio uso. Nuestra gratitud sincera y nuestra alegre generosidad nos llevará a vivir una Vida "centrada en Dios" y no una vida "egocéntrica".

Priesthood Sunday

Gracious and loving God, we thank you for the gift of our priests. Through them, we experience your presence in the sacraments. Help our priests to be strong in their vocation. Set their souls on fire with love for your people. Grant them the wisdom, understanding, and strength they need to follow in the footsteps of Jesus. Inspire them with the vision of your Kingdom. Give them the words they need to spread the Gospel. Allow them to experience joy in their ministry. Help them to become instruments of your divine grace. We ask this through Jesus Christ, who lives and reigns as our Eternal Priest.

Amen.

PRAY FOR VOCATIONS

Seek the Lord while He may be found...

While seeking Him in prayer and the sacraments, listen to Him. Could it be you are being called by Jesus to serve as a priest, deacon, sister or brother?

Contact Fr. Rodel Faller at the Vocations Office by calling 409-924-4361 or by emailing: vocations@dioceseofbmt.org.
