The Solemnity of the Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ - Mark 14:12-16, 22-26

In the beginning of today's Gospel, Jesus instructs his disciples to make preparations for the Passover meal. Like most meals, the Passover meal required planning and preparation. Our celebration of the Sunday Eucharist also requires planning and preparation. Certainly the ministers at the Eucharist prepare for their roles: the person presiding prays and prepares the homily; the prayers of petition are written; the music ministers prayerfully select music and practice it before Mass; Eucharistic ministers, lectors and altar servers prepare carefully for their roles. As the worshipping assembly, we can also prepare for the Mass through our prayer during the week, by reading the Scripture before Mass, and by making ourselves present to the Eucharistic celebration. As you gather as a family...

TALK TOGETHER

About some of the things that are required to prepare for your family meals. Plan together a special Sunday meal by choosing the menu, preparing the shopping list, and assigning duties for cooking, setting the table, preparing decorations, leading the prayers, and cleaning.

READ TOGETHER

Mark 14:12-16, 22-26

Notice how Jesus instructed his disciples to prepare for their Passover meal. All meals require some kind of planning and preparation; so, too, our Sunday Eucharist requires planning. What might we do as a family to better prepare for our celebration of the Eucharist? Choose one or more ideas to begin to implement together as a family.

PRAY TOGETHER

That God will help your family make your celebration of the Eucharist the highlight of your week. Pray together the Lord's Prayer.

Pastor's Family Corner

La solemnidad del Santísimo Cuerpo y Sangre de Cristo - Marcos 14: 12-16, 22-26

Al comienzo del Evangelio de hoy, Jesús manda a sus discípulos a hacer los preparativos para la cena pascual. Como la mayoría de las comidas, la comida de Pascua requería planificación y preparación. Nuestra celebración de la Eucaristía dominical también requiere planificación y preparación. Ciertamente, los ministros de la Eucaristía se preparan para sus funciones: la persona que preside reza y prepara la homilía; las oraciones de petición están escritas; los ministros de música seleccionan música en oración y la practican antes de la Misa; Los ministros, lectores y monaguillos de la Eucaristía se preparan cuidadosamente para sus funciones. Como asamblea de adoración, también podemos prepararnos para la Misa a través de nuestra oración durante la semana, leyendo las Escrituras antes de la Misa y haciéndonos presentes a la celebración eucarística. Al reunirse en familia...

HABLAR JUNTOS

Sobre algunas de las cosas que se requieren para preparar las comidas familiares. Planifiquen juntos una comida en casa especial eligiendo el menú, preparando la lista de compras y asignando tareas para cocinar, poner la mesa, preparar las decoraciones, dirigir las oraciones y limpiar.

LEAN JUNTOS

Marcos 14: 12-16, 22-26

Observe cómo Jesús instruyó a sus discípulos a prepararse para la cena de Pascua. Todas las comidas requieren algún tipo de planificación y preparación; también, nuestra Eucaristía dominical requiere planificación. ¿Qué podríamos hacer como familia para prepararnos mejor para nuestra celebración de la Eucaristía? Elija una o más ideas para comenzar a implementarlas juntos como familia.

OREN JUNTOS

que Dios ayude a su familia a hacer de la celebración de la Eucaristía el punto culminante de su semana. Recen juntos el Padre Nuestro.

"Then he took a cup, gave thanks, and gave it to them and they all drank from it." - MARK 14:23

Jesus, the perfect steward, gave thanks, just before He gave Himself up for us, completely for our salvation. He offers us the same chance to drink from His cup. In the bread and wine, we meet Christ personally. If we follow Him, drinking from His cup means our own self-sacrifice, using all of our gifts for the benefit of others and to do His work on earth.

"Entonces tomó la copa, dio gracias, y la pasó a sus discípulos y todos ellos bebieron de ella." - MARCOS 14:23

Jesús, el perfecto administrador, dio gracias, justamente antes de entregarse a Sí mismo por nosotros completamente para nuestra salvación. Él nos ofrece la misma oportunidad para tomar de Su copa. En el pan y el vino, nos encontramos personalmente con Cristo. Si lo seguimos, beber de Su copa significa nuestro propio sacrificio personal, utilizando todos nuestros dones para el beneficio de los demás y para hacer Su trabajo en la tierra.

Today we celebrate "The Body and Blood of Christ" or "Corpus Christi"

This feast was added to the calendar in the 13th century as a way to celebrate the institution of the Eucharist outside Holy Week. Holy Thursday, of course, celebrates the institution of the Eucharist, but there's so much going on otherwise that day that it was felt we needed another occasion to commemorate this event and in a more festive way than is possible in the shadows of the Passion.

Christ glorified in heaven, Christ glorified in the Sacrament, Christ glorified in human hearts. And, yet, not three Christs glorified, but one Christ glorified—Christ's glories are one and indivisible, co-equal and coeternal. None exists separately from the other. The Body and Blood of Christ in heaven, in the consecrated bread and wine and in human hearts is one and the same.

Here God feeds us with the bread and wine which are the Body and Blood of our Lord Jesus Christ and doing so incorporates us into the Church, which is the Body of Christ. As part of the Body of Christ, we become part of the very life of God himself. This is a wonderful and sacred mystery and is at the heart of our life as Christians. In celebrating the Holy Eucharist, we are being obedient to our Lord Jesus Christ, who said the night before he died, as he took, blessed, broke and gave the bread and took, blessed and gave the cup of wine, 'Do this in remembrance of me.'

From the very beginning of the Church, the regular and frequent celebration of the Eucharist was central to the life of the Church. We see it in the Acts of the Apostles as one of the four marks of the Early Church. The group of followers of Jesus after they had received the gift of the Holy Spirit at Pentecost 'devoted themselves to the apostles' teaching and fellowship, to the breaking of bread and the prayers.' [Acts 2: 42] 'The breaking of bread' is a clear reference to the celebration of the Eucharist, and the importance of the celebration of the Eucharist from the earliest days and its centrality to the life of the Church .

The gospels too are clear that our Lord Jesus Christ was explicit in his in the Gospel 'I tell you, unless you eat the flesh of the Son of Man and drink his blood, you have no life in you. Those who eat my flesh and drink my blood have eternal life, and I will raise them up on the last day; for my flesh is true food and my blood is true drink. Those who eat my flesh and drink my blood abide in me, and I in them. Just as the living Father sent me, and I live because of the Father, so whoever eats me will live because of me.' [John 6: 53 - 57]

So, even in times of persecution, when Christians from all backgrounds, slaves and free, Jew and Greek, rich and poor, would assemble in the largest room in the house of one of the wealthier members of the Church, Sunday by Sunday to celebrate the Eucharist together, the Church has known the centrality and importance of this act in which we participate today. In the early days Christians would generally take home enough of the consecrated species to allow them to receive Holy Communion at home each day until they could come together again the following Sunday. 'Do this as often', said the Lord, as often as you eat and drink.

For us, for whom the reception of Holy Communion is weekly or more frequent, the risk is of over-familiarity with the Eucharist. We can tend to take for granted the wonderful gift we receive. Too easily we ignore the reality of the presence of our Lord Jesus Christ. We become careless as we approach him who gives us his flesh to eat and his blood to drink. We fail to recognize in the bread and wine the body and blood our Lord gave on the Cross for the life of the world. We must always guard against this complacency. The Holy Eucharist is a family meal, in which the Christian family is fed. But the host is our Lord and the food is his life. Without this wonderful gift, we know we cannot live truly as part of his Body; the task would be too hard. But we must never become casual in Our devotion to our Lord, as we prepare to meet him, hidden humbly under the forms of bread and wine. Thus does the Eucharist make present the Covenant that sanctifies us, purifies us and unites us in marvelous communion with God.

PRAYER FOR THE SOLEMNITY OF THE
MOST HOLY BODY
AND BLOOD OF CHRIST
(CORPUS CHRISTI)

O LORD JESUS CHRIST,
YOU WHO HAVE GIVEN US
YOUR PRECIOUS BODY
AND BLOOD TO BE OUR MEAT AND DRINK,
GRANT THAT THROUGH
FREQUENT RECEPTION
OF YOU IN THE HOLY EUCCHARIST, I MAY BE STRENGTHENED IN MIND AND BODY TO DO YOUR HOLY WILL. AMEN.

CONGRATULATIONS

This Sunday we celebrate "The Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ". Next time you are at mass pay close attention to how many times Fr. Peter says "the body and blood of Christ" during the Liturgy of the Eucharist.

Este Domingo celebramos "El Santísimo Cuerpo y Sangre de Cristo". La próxima vez que estén en misa, preste mucha atención a cuántas veces el P. Pedro dice "el cuerpo y la sangre de Cristo" durante la Liturgia de la Eucaristía.

Devotion to the Sacred Heart of Jesus

June 11 will be the 2021 Feast Day for the Most Sacred Heart of Jesus and the entire month of June is devoted to the Sacred Heart of Jesus as well as each First Friday of the year. This is a devotion that focuses attention on the physical Heart is the symbol of His redemptive love. Although tradition often situates the beginning of the practice of the devotion to the year 1000, it might be more accurate to place its birth during the time of the great mystics [St. Anselm and St. Bernard] between 1050 and 1150. By the middle ages, because of a strong emphasis on the Passion of our Lord, and because of the efforts of St. Bonaventure and St. Gertrude the Great, the devotion became popularized as a means of worshipping the mystery of Christ, living in the Church. This devotion was promoted by great Saints, including St. Albert the Great, St. Catherine of Siena, St. Francis de Sales, as well as the great religious orders, such as the Benedictines, the Dominicans, and the Carthusians. However, it must be recorded that the Saint who is most often associated with this devotion is St. Margaret Mary Alacoque [1647-1690]. After she received the Vision of the Sacred Heart, which popularized the devotion, she was scorned by her mother superior who thought her to be delusional. The Saint took ill. Mother superior told St. Margaret Mary that she would believe the miracle of the vision if the Saint were cured. She was and St. Margaret was able to promote the devotion under the guidance of her spiritual director, St. Claude Colombiere. Several books have been published on her extensive letters, sayings and the revelations given to her by Our Lord. Her private revelations promoted the establishment of a liturgical feast day and the practice of offering reparation for the outrages committed against the Blessed Sacrament on the First Fridays and the Promises of the Sacred Heart. St. Alphonsus was heavily influenced by St. Margaret Mary in his own devotion to the Sacred Heart. In modern times it was Pope Pius IX who, in 1856, established the Feast of the Sacred Heart and encouraged the efforts of the Apostleship of Prayer...a confraternity of faithful Catholics who encourage groups, families, and communities to consecrate themselves to the Sacred Heart.. In 1928 Pope Pius XI issued his encyclical Miserentissimus Redemptor on reparation to the Sacred Heart.

O, Sacred Heart of Jesus, filled with infinite Love; broken by our ingratitude and pierced by our sins, yet loving us still; accept the consecration we make to you of all that we are and all that we have. Through me, may everyone I meet this day see you Lord, feel your presence and experience your love. May I serve you by serving others in your name, making all that I do gift of love. Amen.

If you would like to add or remove a name from the prayer list, please contact the church office.

PRAYER INTENTIONS

God of all creation and of our salvation, we ask for your healing to come to those who are in need, physically or spiritually, through Christ our Lord. Amen.
