Twenty Fourth Sunday in Ordinary Time, Year A
Matthew 18:21-35

Children learn to trust God's mercy and forgiveness when they experience forgiveness from those closest to them. We hope that we model God's love and forgiveness within our family life. Today's Gospel reminds us that forgiveness is measured by its quality more than its quantity.

TALK TOGETHER

Invite your family to consider some recent times when family members sought the forgiveness of another. Ask if there were any statements made that put conditions on our forgiveness such as "I will play this game with you if you apologize for knocking over my blocks" or "I will accept your apology after you clean up your room." Do we sometimes "keep count" or put conditions on our forgiveness of one another? This is something we may be doing without realizing it. Ask if we sometimes find ourselves sounding like Peter, concerning ourselves with quantity of forgiveness rather than offering forgiveness abundantly and unconditionally. Reflect upon the parable that Jesus tells. What does the servant do that makes the king so angry? He refuses to forgive his fellow servant the debt that he owes. Because we have all received God's forgiveness, God expects that we will also be forgiving toward others. Jesus' answer to Peter's question is found at the end of the parable. The number of times that we forgive one another is less important than the depth of our forgiveness. We must forgive one another from the heart.

READ TOGETHER

Read together today's Gospel, Matthew 18:21-35.

PRAY TOGETHER

Conclude in prayer together that God's love and forgiveness is evident in your family life. Pray together today's psalm, Psalm 103, or the Lord's Prayer.

Pastor's Family Corner

Vigésimo Cuarto Domingo en el Tiempo Ordinario, Año A
Mateo 18:21-35

Los niños aprenden a confiar en la misericordia y el perdón de Dios cuando experimentan el perdón de sus seres más cercanos. Esperamos que seamos modelo del amor y el perdón de Dios dentro de nuestra vida familiar. El evangelio de hoy nos recuerda que el perdón se mide más por su calidad que por su cantidad.

HABLEN JUNTOS

Invite a su familia a considerar algunos momentos recientes en los que miembros de la familia buscaron el perdón de otra persona. Pregunte si se hicieron declaraciones que pusieran condiciones a nuestro perdón, como "jugaré este juego contigo si te disculpas por derribar mis bloques" o "Aceptaré tus disculpas después de que limpies tu habitación". ¿A veces "llevamos la cuenta" o ponemos condiciones a nuestro perdón mutuo? Esto es algo que podemos estar haciendo sin darnos cuenta. Pregunte si a veces nos encontramos hablando como Pedro, preocupándonos por la cantidad de perdón en lugar de ofrecer perdón abundante e incondicionalmente. Reflexiona sobre la parábola que cuenta Jesús. ¿Qué hace el siervo que enoja tanto al rey? Se niega a perdonar a su consiervo la deuda que tiene. Debido a que todos hemos recibido el perdón de Dios, Dios espera que también perdonemos a los demás. La respuesta de Jesús a la pregunta de Pedro se encuentra al final de la parábola. El número de veces que nos perdonamos unos a otros es menos importante que la profundidad de nuestro perdón. Debemos perdonarnos unos a otros de corazón.

LEER JUNTOS

Lean juntos el Evangelio de hoy, Mateo 18:21-35.

OREN JUNTOS

Concluya en oración juntos que el amor y el perdón de Dios son evidentes en su vida familiar. Oren juntos el salmo de hoy, el Salmo 102, o el Padrenuestro.

"For if we live, we live for the Lord, and if we die, we die for the Lord; so then, whether we live or die, we are the Lord's." - Romans 14:8

This is the essence of stewardship - everything we have and everything we are is a gift from God. We aren't "owners" of anything, we are merely "stewards" of the gifts that God has given us, especially our very own lives. Pray to God, daily, and ask Him how He is calling you to the live the life that He intended for you.

"Si vivimos, para el Señor vivimos; y si morimos, para el Señor morimos. De manera que, tanto en la vida como en la muerte, pertenecemos al Señor." - Romanos 14:8

Esa es la esencia de la corresponsabilidad - todo lo que tenemos y todo lo que somos es un don de Dios.

No somos los "dueños" de nada, somos simplemente "administradores" de los dones que Dios nos ha dado, especialmente en nuestras propias vidas. Ore al Señor, diariamente, y pregúntele como lo llama a vivir la vida que Él ha destinado para usted.

CATECHETICAL SUNDAY

SEPTEMBER 17, 2023

Commissioning of Catechists

Annually, the third Sunday of September is designated as Catechetical Sunday throughout the entire Catholic Church. Those involved with catechesis and evangelization efforts in the Church are commissioned for ministry on this day. Our parish greatly appreciates our volunteers who dedicate their time, talent and treasure to ministering to our children, youth and adults. Please pray for them and support them any way you can.
